DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 12/27/06 has been entered.

The indicated allowability of claim 2 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to W. E. Dowd, Jr. (US 1,697,591). Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the subject matter that a plurality of heat exchanging elements mounted at an outer circumferential surface of the shaft must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered. Applicant discloses (figure 3) that heat exchanging elements are mounted at an outer circumferential surface of the hub not the shaft.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2,4,7-8,17 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over W. E. Dowd, Jr. (US 1,697,591). Dowd discloses (figure 1) a heat exchanger comprising a housing having a first fluid passage and a second fluid passage (B,C); a shaft (E) rotatably supported by the housing; the shaft being rotatable about an axis (longitudinal axis) which is substantially perpendicular to a direction of the fluids flowing in at least one of the first fluid passage and the second fluid passage; a plurality of heat exchanging elements (F) mounted at an outer circumferential surface of the shaft; a hub is formed at an outer circumferential surface of the shaft, in which an inner surface of the heat exchanging elements (F) is mounted; the heat exchanging elements (F) is capable of being rotatable on the shaft by the fluid flow to exchange heat between the first and second fluid passage since the air flows into the passage and impart a force on the arms (f) which is capable of creating rotating power for the pulley which in turn to rotate the heat exchanging element (F) ; a heat exchanging housing (formed by a conveyor belt and bottom part of arm f) within the housing (82) to communicate with the first and second fluid; the heat exchanging housing surrounding the heat exchanging elements (F). Regarding claim 4, a support rib (f) is mounted at an outer circumferential of the heat exchanging elements.

Regarding the indoor air and outdoor air, "Expressions relating the apparatus to contents thereof during an intended operation are of no significance in determining patentability of the apparatus claim." Ex parte Thibault, 164 USPQ 666, 667 (Bd. App. 1969). Furthermore, "[i]nclusion of material or article worked upon by a structure being claimed does not impart patentability to the claims." In re Young, 75 F.2d 996, 25 USPQ 69 (CCPA 1935) (as restated in In re Otto, 312 F.2d 937, 136 USPQ 458, 459 (CCPA 1963)). In this instant case, the material of fluid such as indoor air and outdoor air or gas or other type of working fluid worked upon by the regenerative heat exchange apparatus does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from the prior art.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3 and 9-16 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 5-6 are allowed.
